PRIVATE CORPORATE FUND-RAISING

Mark Seltman is New York City's premier hand reader. He has examined tens of thousands of hands of people of every age, gender, race, color, size, shape, career, and socio-economic diversity. His readings are constructive, helpful, and leave people feeling hopeful. Within five minutes of meeting a person, Mark will pinpoint current and major life issues and share valuable observations and insights. Mark offers entertaining and accurate reflections for up to sixty people in five hours.

“Thank you so much for the wonderful job you did at my party last week. You were a great hit with my guests and made the evening such fun.”

Martha Stewart

“Thank you for doing a great job at our annual holiday party. Everyone we spoke with said that you were right on target! It was an enjoyable afternoon and by far the best entertainment we've had. We think that you did a fantastic job and hope we have other events / occasions to use and recommend your services.”

World Gold Council

“Many thanks for being part of our event, everyone is still raving about you!”
